Robert Elrose I was three years old when you started protecting the patrons of Jones Beach as a lifeguard. Thirty-five years later and countless lives saved & bettered by your care and comfort as both an EMT & lifeguard, God has made you His newest Angel. Rest well, my friend, you have more than earned your place by His side. We will all miss you more than words can say.

Michael Raio Ben, I had the pleasure of doing a few jobs with you on the bus maybe a month or two ago like the old days. You were there to help people. Like you helped me with my college project, you were the only one who stepped up to the plate out of everyone I know. I thank you for you that. I did you use your answers and input and my professor was wowed by your answers. You were truly a great man, the best and nobody can take that away from you ever.

Patrick Walker By reading all these posts it is obvious what an impact Ben had on many of our lives. Few people know how helpful Ben was to my family and me in the last two months of my fathers life. He went above and beyond what a person I just work with would do and so I call Ben a friend and he will be missed dearly. If you can hear me Ben thank you for everything.

Your knowledge about the beach and safety was second to none. Plus you went out with your boots on. It was an honor to sit on a wing-stand with you, have a few laughs and clear the flats for you.

I considered you a friend. When you weren't there on Monday, I even asked where you were. Every discharge I looked for you. I am so sorry this happened. I am so sad. I still can't believe it. I saw you on Saturday and everything was fine. I am so sorry we didn't find you for 2 days. Please know we were looking for you...we were there.

CEMS will be surrounded by sadness and loss for losing you. You were truly an amazing person and shouldn't have been taken so soon. I hope you are with your mother. I will miss you Ben...for a long time, I will miss you.

Steve Levy Ben always had that crooked smile and those bright eyes; you couldn't help but smile back. I said this about brother Fontana and I'll say the same about you...To laugh often and much; To win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; To earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; To appreciate beauty, to find the best in others; To leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch, or a redeemed social condition; To know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is to have succeeded. ~Often attributed to Emerson

I will always remember how you came to visit me everyday in the hospital last year, you brought me my favorite ice cream, coffee or mocha chip. you recently told me how it was one of your favorites now because of me. Your passing has sadden so many. You touched the hearts of numerous people. You were very loved. I hope you are on the most beautiful beach anyone of us could imagine. With the softest sand. We miss you so very much. to all those who have said before me, yes an you are now an angel to us all. R.I.P.

Adam Kofod Well you didn't go out like Nelson Rockefeller, but you did go out training for the JB rehire so that was probably up there on the list of ways you would have wanted to go. Ben, you were a class act, a prince among men. As Botswain my first year back in 2000 you were a mentor, an entertainer and a friend. For nine years at Jones Beach I had the honor to work along side you. When people all around you were losing their heads you were a steady-eddy to the crew. Your devotion to Field 2 was unwavering. But what stands out most in my mind was that you were a kind soul. You were always positive, always had a funny comment, and always looked for ways to make peace and be constructive. The world needs more Ben Von Pentz's. Hopefully we will meet again someday in the great beach in the sky where you no doubt are... and maybe I will have a rematch for that time you beat me in the 100 during our rehire swim. Much love!
